Â
Winchester Centre of Religions for Reconciliation and Peace.

Â
Applications are invited from suitably qualified individuals wishing to undertake doctoral research with the Winchester Centre of Religions for Reconciliation and Peace (WCRRP). The WCRRP is a vibrant and rapidly developing research centre which examines the role faith based organisations, religious leaders, and faith communities can play in peacebuilding and reconciliation processes. With a specific focus on practice-based research, this is an exciting opportunity to work in an area of academia which has the potential to make a significant and tangible impact on people directly affected by conflict around the world.ÂÂÂ
